Project – Newsletter No. 1

What is the PedPilots Erasmus+ project about?

The PedPilots Erasmus+ project is an innovative initiative that aims to support teachers and institutional innovation. Its primary goal is to provide comprehensive support through training and methodological materials, enabling them to better prepare for domestic and international mobility projects, and to promote self-directed learning processes among teachers and, through them, students.

At the heart of the project is the goal to equip teachers and institutional staff with the tools they need to succeed in today's globalized educational environment.

First partner meeting in Szeged

On November 22, 2024, Szeged hosted the first meeting of the partners. The participants thoroughly reviewed the program's objectives, coordinated the assigned tasks, and scheduled the joint work. Inspiring presentations were given on the topics of "co-creation," self-development, and mobility – all closely related to the project's philosophy and goals. The knowledge and experience shared here will later be disseminated to teachers, supporting their professional development and ensuring a broader impact of the project.
